Fifth Sunday of Lent

The LORD has done great things for us; Oh, how happy we were! Restore our captives, LORD, like the dry stream beds of the Negeb.

Welcome
We extend a warm welcome to all our guests and visitors who have joined us at today’s liturgy. We hope that you feel at home here. Please let us know if we can be of any assistance while you are among us.
Padre’s point of view . . .
This week’s spiritual work of mercy is Forgive all Injuries.

As human people, we like to hang on to ill feelings and grudges. On the cross, Christ preached “Forgive them Father, for they know not what they are doing.” This is our example and model of what Christ is calling us to do. Forgiveness only becomes difficult when we are selfish and self-centered. Rather than thinking of fighting and how this effects me, it’s better to walk in the other persons moccasins. Walking in their moccasins, lets us feel the tiredness of their journey, and their thirst for understanding.

Fr. Chris will be in the St. Anthony Church office on Tuesdays and Thursdays. He will be in the Sacred Heart Church office on Wednesdays and Fridays.

Fifth Sunday of Lent

No place to hide. It can be most embarrassing to do or say something, to have everyone hear and see, and then point a finger. Out in the open. No place to hide. Let that be our task this Lent. Go to Jesus (being dragged there might be okay). Stand before him (and everyone else). Then hear Jesus say, “I do not condemn. Stop doing ____. Stop saying ____. Stop being ____.” Then go: do good; be good.

CCW Upcoming events:
April 5th, salad supper at Sacred Heart;
May 1st, mother-daughter breakfast and quilt raffle.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter
Jesus has such compassion on the woman in the Gospel reading today as he forgives her and gives her mercy and grace instead of judgment and condemnation. We are in turn called to extend that same love and compassion to others, especially in our marriage relationship. The next Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is April 22nd to 24th. To register or for more information call 314-649-7317 or go online to www.stl-wwme.org.

Mission Statement - Philippians 3:14
Pressing on to the Goal of service to the Lord by stretching our intellect, confirming our values, and living our faith.
This week in RCIA…… Father Zach was presenting to the class an overview of the Ten Commandments. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church (2083) we find, “Jesus summed up man’s duties toward God in this saying, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with your soul, and with all your mind.’ This immediately echoes the solemn call: ‘Hear O Israel: the Lord our God is one Lord.’ God has loved us first. The love of the One God is recalled in the first of the “ten words”. The commandments, then, make explicit the response of love man is called to give God.” (CCC). Perhaps it has been awhile since we have looked at the Ten Commandments. They are still the same!

The class also learned about making their first confession and were prepared by Fr. Michal who helped them navigate through any fears or anxieties. We are preparing for an evening of retreat on Thursday March 17 when Fr. Ron will lead the group through the parts of the Triduum in preparation for those who are about to be baptized and received into full communion with the Catholic Church. Please continue to pray for this special group of men and women and their families who support the with their presence and prayers.

Year of Mercy Project
The friars of the Franciscan Province of the Sacred Heart have served in this area since 1858, establishing their first headquarters in Teutopolis. Now the Franciscans invite you to join them in a project to celebrate the Year of Mercy. Remembering that one of the Corporal Works of Mercy is “to give drink to the thirsty,” the friars are trying to raise $50K to dig fresh water wells in South Sudan and the Democratic Republic of Congo. Your participation in this project could make a significant difference in the lives of people who have little access to clean water. Please send your contributions to:

Rosaries for Cancer Patients

A local two year cancer survivor is asking us to collect rosaries. Any kind, size, shape, color, or broken ones. They will be used to make “prayer bracelets” for cancer patients. Go thru your jewelry box, drawers and pockets and bring in your old rosaries to help LoveyG’s create these unique bracelets to help cancer patients cope with their treatments. You can leave them at the entrances of church or bring them to the parish office.
