Padre’s point of view . . .
Thy will be done!

If you have read “Resisting Happiness” by Matthew Kelly; you have some good insight already into these words. This line from the Our Father is very powerful and it gives God permission to direct our lives. It may sound strange that we have to give God permission, but we do. Because God loves us, He does not force us to follow His will. At times His will is different than ours; also, He bends His will to help us. When we give God permission to direct our lives in the little things it helps us to let Him do it in the large things. So surrender the little decisions to Him and this will help you surrender the larger ones.

Luminaries for Life
Jan. 21 and 22
The front steps of our church are filled with luminaries this weekend (weather permitting) to commemorate the tragic court decision that legalized abortion in the U.S. Every year, well over a million children die from abortion in the US – it’s the leading cause of death! It seems impossible to grasp the enormity of this heartbreak. As you view the luminaries, consider that they illustrate the number of abortions done every 3 hours in the US.
Be sure to visit the lighted display on the evenings of January 21 & 22. Students from St. Anthony and Sacred Heart parishes created these luminaries with a prayer on the backside. Please join your prayers with theirs and ask God to help all mothers and fathers tempted by abortion.
In the event of bad weather, the display will be held the following weekend.
