Second Sunday of Lent

What is God Asking of Us?

What was Abraham’s first thoughts when he heard God calling him? HE responded quickly, “Here I am”. Are we as quick to respond? Are we spiritually attune to God’s calling? Do we hear His voice speaking to us? I dare say Abraham had no idea what God was going to ask of Him, or he may have acted like he couldn’t hear a thing.

God asked Abraham to sacrifice His Son. Msgr. Hoefler shared at the early Mass on Ash Wednesday that the term “sacrifice” means “to make holy”. How could Abraham’s community see that taking the life of His son as a “holy act”, or how would they find this taking of His son’s life as a sign of holiness?

Well this was what God asked of Abraham and as the Word shares Abraham’s faithfulness to His God led him to go all the way with this request until at the last minute, when Abraham had the knife in his hand for the slaughter …. God spoke again. God was well pleased. Abraham proved that God was first in his life, and He would accept God’s will.

What if? This is a good reflection for all of us to ask ourselves. What if? In my 59 years of life God has never asked of me to give to Him so much. Would my faith be this strong? Have I made God first in my life? Is God’s will for my life primary for me over my own wants and hopes? Would God ever go that far to ask this of me, or of you?

Well on Friday we prayed the Stations of the Cross in our church once again as we begin these first days of Lent. Why do we do this? What really happened in the account of these 14 steps of Jesus? We know what Jesus did. We know of Mary’s deep sadness of her son’s crucifixion, we know of the courage and compassion of Veronica who stepped out to wipe His bloody face, we know of the weeping women, we know John stood at the foot of the cross with Mary, we know Simon of Cyrene was forced to help Jesus carry His cross, but do we ever take time to contemplate how while all of this happened, the Father was watching from above. We must never forget the Father let His Son be crucified. The Father’s will for us was to allow, and even He chose for His Son, Jesus to be crucified for us and to save us from our sins.

He, who caught Abraham at the “last minute” from sacrificing his son, went through with letting His Son’s life be taken. How faithful is our God? How great is our God? How awesome is our God? His desire for our sin to be “redeemed” was so strong, His love for us is so real and deep, His hope for our “metanoia” is so strong, that YES, he would let His Son suffer and die at Calvary. Unbelievable !!!

This God created us in His image and likeness. As we spend these 40 days of Lent contemplating Jesus’ love for us, let us not forget the great love the Father has for us too. What he saved Abraham from doing because of Abraham’s faithfulness to the covenant, he was WILLING to do in his faithfulness and love for all of us…..

That is a God that I can follow. His great sacrifice calls of me a true choice to be His devoted “intentional disciple”. May I learn from Abraham’s example. May I go forth imitating the Father’s love….. 29 days to go ….. where will I walk, and with whom will I journey and follow?

- Peace Fr. Chuck
