He is Risen

St. Anthony of Padua - 101 E Virginia Ave - Effingham, IL 62401  217-347-7129
“We Rise Again From Ashes”
He is Risen, Alleluia !!!

Forty days ago this week, we marked ourselves with ashes on our forehead at the Ash Wednesday Liturgy. We heard the words, “Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel” which invited us to enter into the spirit of Lent and seek to be reconciled from our sinful way to turn back to God and find healing and wholeness.

Well the days of Lent have come and gone. Hopefully we all have identified what needs forgiven and how we are being called to be transformed into this person of resurrected hope. Hopefully we have experienced the paschal mystery, the dying and rising to new life that comes from dying to sin and rising to a new life, free of the bonds of sin.

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL OF YOU, AND MAY YOU ALL FIND HOPE IN JESUS AS OUR RISEN SAVIOR!

I join Fr. Michael, Fr. Marek, Fr. Carl, Fr. Ron, Deacon John, and Deacon Joe, our visiting seminarian Peter, along with John Valenti and his team leading the RCIA process for our 6 parishes, in congratulating and welcoming all our new Catholics, full members in our respective parishes.

I want to thank John and the team along with the wonderful sponsors for these new Catholics, who gave much to teach, inspire, and support those who made the journey. I thank our parish families who prayed daily for them.

I always look so forward to this beautiful week to recommit myself to the will of God, and to deepening my own personal relationship with the Risen Savior.

I want to thank both our parish staffs for all their leadership in bring the Easter celebration to a reality. Thanks to our Art & Environment committees from both parishes for decorating our church and grounds for Easter so beautifully. To Irene Koester & all of our choirs, cantors, musicians at both parishes for all they did with their beautiful music and to all involved with all our ministries. I prayed for all our parishioners, and will continue to pray the Easter blessings and joy of His Resurrection will live in your heart for many days ahead. Happy Easter !!!

- Peace, Fr. Chuck

Leg of Lamb Men’s Prayer Group

Thursday 9:00pm in Church
Contact: Peter Althoff 217-821-2365

Leg of Lamb is an acronym for “Leo’s (Fr. Leo) Ecumenical Group, Of Friends Longing After Mary’s Boy.” The group was formed in 1990. Meetings are held in St. Anthony church, Thursday night 9:00 PM. The church is somewhat dark. The normal group size is 12 men. We start with a scriptural rosary which has a line or two of scripture before every Hail Mary. This is followed by open prayer where whoever wishes to pray takes his turn to pray out loud. This is followed by sharing a God moment / close moment. These can be as simple as seeing an old friend or as special as someone coming back to the faith. Normally we then go out for a cup of coffee. Over the years more than 100 people have attended from 10 area churches. Any man is welcome.
