Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time...One option for the Liturgy of the Word today are the readings for Cycle A, since this is the Sunday we celebrate the Third Scrutiny with the Elect and those about to complete the Sacraments of Initiation. Throughout this year we regularly use Cycle C, so for those who found themselves turning pages for the readings at some of the masses, that is why.

Cycle A readings include messages of ‘rising’ from ‘dead’ spirits and bodies and promises from our Lord of “new life”. Most all Catholics and Christians are familiar with the Gospel story of Jesus raising Lazarus from the dead. Oftentimes we hear these scriptures and think of what was happening at the time of the story while missing the raising to new life that happens everyday to the people around us.

This year we have been blessed and are now witnessing new ‘rising’ in our very midst in our Catechumens and Candidates preparing for the Easter Vigil! It was 24 weeks ago that some of these men and women started coming together as a result of their sensing a nudging or in response to a request to journey through RCIA. They have been diligent in their studies and reflective of their journeys. They are noticing how things are starting to ‘fit together’ from different topics each week such as: Who is God and who am I?, the sin problem, Who is Jesus?, The Church and Me, The Creed and the 4 Marks of the Church, Sacramental Ecology, the Lord’s Prayer, Sacraments of Initiation, Healing and Service, Mary and the Saints, Liturgical Year, Church History, Prayer, Devotions, Traditions, A walk through the Mass and the Missalette, Ecumenism, Contemporary Moral Issues, Natural Law, Vices and Virtues, the Ten Commandments, and the Universal Call to Holiness.

They have been and continue to be challenged to recognize where they are on this journey of faith. They are discovering that faith is a very misunderstood word in the religious vocabulary. They, like you and I, find faith described in Hebrews 11, “Faith is confident assurance concerning what we hope for, and conviction about things we do not see.” Bishop Robert Barron says, “Faith is straining ahead toward those things that are, at best, dimly glimpsed. It is confident and full of conviction.” These men and women are about to witness and participate in the next step of faith: their baptism, confirmation, and receiving of Our Lord Jesus Christ for the very first time. They will see the graces of the Sacraments poured over them at the Easter Vigil, and through the eyes of you and I as we participate fully in the Triduum, where we acknowledge grace is not to be ignored or rejected but ACCEPTED to live our Catholic faith fully. And while their journey, nor ours, ends at the Easter Vigil, we become renewed with a sense of new and continued ‘rising’. Please pray for them, whose pictures are now not to be ignored or rejected but ACCEPTED to live our Catholic faith fully. God’s blessings.

Deacon Joe and Pat Emmerich

Table of Plenty News!

A big thank you to Mrs. Gardewine’s 2nd grade class for loading all of the March donations. We think they were very surprised at how much food we could fit in 1 vehicle! April marks the 1 year anniversary of the Table of Plenty program. We have been truly overwhelmed with the amount of support we have received from the students, parents, faculty and parishioners of St. Anthony over this past year! We would like to challenge SAGS to donate 1000 non perishable food items including macaroni-n-cheese, canned fruit and pop tarts for the month of April. If we reach this goal, there will be an ice cream treat celebration on Friday, April 12th! This months donations will be accepted during all masses on April 5th & 6th as well as during the junior high mass on Tuesday, April 9th and the grade school mass on Thursday, April 11th. The high school has their own competition going on and we can’t wait to see which class wins! Good luck and thank you so much for everything! Finally, we would like to give a special thanks to Branches Massage & Spa for their generous donation to this program. Because of their generosity, more food was purchased for those in need!

A very special THANK YOU to Jill Schultz and all of her helpers for all their hard work and dedication on this 1 year anniversary of the Table of Plenty. May God bless you for all the work you put into this program.

Pro-Life Corner

Have you been to see the movie Unplanned yet? Archbishop Joseph Naumann, Chairman of the USCCB Pro-Life Committee, had this to say about the movie:

“This story “has the power to open hearts, change minds and inspire people.” He compared Abby Johnson’s story of conversion to that of Saul to St. Paul, but “for the pro-life movement.”

Regarding the film’s rating, he said - “I never thought I’d promote an R-rated film. But the great irony is that a 15-year-old girl can’t go to this movie, but she could have an abortion and her parents will never know it.”

“If you see only one movie this year, see the movie Unplanned. I warn you – Unplanned is painful, graphic and yet inspiring.”
