What do You Call “Treasure”?

Doors Open at 8:00 am!!! This is what I told many folks who asked me regarding the Gigantic Flea Market we held at St. Anthony this past weekend. People called and stopped by asking the big question. For many days, countless parishioners, young and older, spent many hours, if not days, preparing for this moment and then spent two days welcoming hundreds of folks who came looking for their “treasure.”

As always, many planned ahead and came early to stand in line for the “first chance” to get their hands on some great “treasures,” at least to them. I am amazed but not surprised. Our parishioners who were here to “set up” told me of the history and its success in the past. I applaud all of their efforts, and offer my grateful “THANKS” for coming, and spending the time “giving,” preparing, and hosting such an event, which is a blessing as a parish fundraiser. What I loved about seeing the “set up” in action was that you really did not notice someone “running the show,” it had become such a well oiled machine, it seemed like everyone knew their part and “gotter done.”

I live at the rectory. In some ways it is a blessing that I share a home. All my possessions are on the walls or in the drawers/desks in four rooms, along with a few boxes still in the basement. What are the “treasures” that I keep with me as I move from parish to parish? (I hope I am here at least till 2028 when I turn 70). 1. My 7 ft. by 5 ft “Cubs Rug” in my living room. 2. My metal tissue box shaped into a face with a nose which the tissues come out of. 3. My painting of the “Pieta” painted and given to me by a Vietnamese father of a young man our parish sponsored who “escaped” to America back in 1990. 4. A new item given to me lately which is a coffee table made of astro turf, two baseball bats (cut in half as the four legs) and “Cubs” emblems on the top. 5. My family and friends photos, especially my mother’s photo when she was “Sweet Heart Queen” at the Valentines Day Dance in the early 50’s. 6. A family bible given to us by +Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas when I was in the seminary in 1979. 7. A note/letter hand typed by and sent by Saint “Mother” Teresa to me in 1985 on the occasion of my Diaconate Ordination, after I met her in New York. 8. A cross which hung in my mother’s casket, a replica cross of the “papal staff” carried by Saint “Pope” John Paul. 9. A hand written note of appreciation from my mom sent after my priesthood ordination and first mass festivities.

Things that may not mean much to others, but they have deep meaning for me as I look back at my life and what has become “important” for me. What are your “Treasures?” What has deep meaning for you? The fundraiser experience gave me a look at what I have come to see as a “bigger picture” than a huge Parish Hall filled with “treasures,” excited buyers, and some great parishioners who gave much to “make it happen” as they do each year.

These past days of seeing countless young people and older folks from our parish doing so much; they are folks who love their parish, love their faith, and want to be a part of the mission we all are called to live ….. to hand on the faith of Jesus Christ, in the Catholic tradition. Beyond the “flea markets,” the “parish picnics,” the “Scrip” sales, the Corvette raffles … and all our time and efforts, is a deeper conviction to supporting the greater treasure of what we do best in our church, schools, offices, and parish center …… We do faith. We learn it, we practice it, we turn to it, we live it, we hand it on ….. and I realize for most of us ….. it has and will always be “our greatest treasure.” In the end we will leave it all behind and hope to possess for sure one treasure ….. a place in the kingdom of heaven. Until then we “Press on to the Goal” seeking this treasure for sure. I’ll help you if you help me….

- Peace, Fr. Chuck

CCW NEWS

Even though the weather has not told us, May is fast approaching and with it, our annual May breakfast. All of the current officers have graciously agreed to serve a second term, so we will not have an installation at Mass. I encourage all of the ladies of the church and daughters to join us for breakfast and a milliner’s (hats) style show. If you have a favorite hat, old or new, please wear it. Please contact the office if you plan to attend so we can get an idea on ordering food. If you forget, come anyway. We will also be announcing our Distinctive Woman of the Year. Don’t forget ladies, dues are due. Your support allows us to attend to the altar needs with minimal fundraisers. We appreciate all your support throughout the year!

Come join us,
Sincerely Rita Devore, President CCW.

Period of Mystagogy

The Period of Mystagogy lasts from Easter Sunday until the completion of the Easter season, fifty days later on Pentecost Sunday and completes the initiation process:

Those who have just shared in the sacraments of initiation are now called Neophytes and during this period of Easter joy they reflect on what they have just gone through and look to the future as to how they can now share in the mission of Christ who came to bring salvation and life to the whole world. This period of time reminds the whole church that life in Christ constantly calls us to grow and to look for new ways to live the life of grace, personally and together.
