“That you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth” (Acts 14:47)

Happy Mother’s Day on this Good Shepherd Sunday!

I recently read something written several years ago about sheep and shepherding and discovered that sheep can survive on just about anything (unlike cows and horses). The shepherds of Israel could lead their flocks of sheep through vast wildernesses, knowing they could survive only on small clumps of weeds scorched by the sun. Not much grows in the wilderness.

John’s Gospel today we hear Jesus describing himself as the Good Shepherd. He is not content to see us barely survive. He wants us to thrive! So, he leads us to pastures where we are amply nourished. He spreads out a banquet, a true feast. He does not ration our nourishment, instead the cup he shares overflows! Why does He do this? Because of His great love for us demonstrated well in the Paschal Mystery we celebrate especially during this Easter season. He continues to do all for us in a rich feast of Scripture and Sacraments, examples of saints, and writings of the Church, just to name a few.

On this Good Shepherd Sunday, we also celebrate Mother’s Day. Good Mothers are a lot like Good Shepherds. They want us to thrive, and their love for their children is incomparable. Our mother’s remind us to eat our vegetables even when they don’t taste good, take our vitamins, get our exercise. Our mothers want to protect us from danger. They teach us. Our Good Shepherd does the same. Following his voice, he keeps us safe from the voice of strangers and thieves who want to steal and perhaps destroy us and our souls: things that are temptations which do not lead us to eternal life. He gently corrects us and shows us his mercy. He desires for us the best of spiritual and virtuous living. He leads us. We follow.

Good Shepherd Sunday is also a Day of Prayer for Vocations. Through the teaching of Holy Mother Church, Jesus shepherds us. In many cases he calls men and women to the priesthood and religious life to help lead and shepherd His church. Are you or someone you need to speak with, being called to this ministry?

It is not just about followers, it is about Good followers. It is not just about mothers it is about Good mothers. It is not about priests or sisters, it is about Good priests and sisters. Jesus is our Good Shepherd. Let us continue to learn from Him about His bringing salvation to ourselves, our families and our ministries to the world!

Resurrection Funeral Choir
The Resurrection Funeral Choir is looking for those who like to sing and have the time to do so. Joining our choir is a rewarding experience and helps enhance the funeral liturgy for our parishioners. If you’re interested or for additional information, call Irene Koester (347-7129), Judy Willenborg (342-6262) or Joyce Kabbes (273-6801). Come when you are free to do so. It is really a “Holy Moment” for all.

Needing a Ministry Sub?
In an effort to make communication smoother and more effective to find ministry subs, we will be utilizing an app called GroupMe. This is a free app. Ministers will be receiving a text message inviting them to this group beginning on May 6th, with anticipation of completion on May 20th. Once you receive the invitation, you just need to click the link to enter the group. There will be separate groups for EOM, Ushers, Lectors and Servers. The parish office will continue to send out a complete listing of ministers and their contact information on a regular basis. If you have questions, or have trouble with this app, please give the parish office a call at 347-7129.

Children’s Liturgy
The last session for Children’s Liturgy will be Sunday May 12th. I would like to thank all the parents who sent their children to participate in this program. A big thank you also goes out to my high school helpers and teachers. Without their help this program would not be possible!! We will start back up sometime in September.

Day of Prayer for Life – Please mark your calendars for the upcoming 45th annual Day of Prayer for Life to be held Wednesday, June 26th, at St Francis Church in Teutopolis, beginning with 8:00am mass, followed by Eucharistic Exposition and Prayer throughout the day. Fr. Dean Probst will be our honored guest celebrant and homilist at the 7:30pm closing Mass. St. Anthony & St. Mary's Shumway’s prayer hour will be from 10-11am.

Greetings! I hope this finds each of you well. Today, as we all know is Mother's Day, so let's wish a very happy Mother's Day to all mothers and commit to praying in thanksgiving for their immeasurable impact in our lives. Fittingly, the Church Universal also observes the 56th Annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Our parents are our first and primary teachers of the faith and give us examples to live by.

As such, prayer and discernment are central to this process. Please contact the parish office at 347-7129 if you are interested in chairing this committee.

St. Anthony Church Picnic
August 10th & 11th

Class Reunion/Alumni Coordinator Needed for Picnic
The picnic committee is in need of a chairperson to organize the Class Reunion/Alumni committee for the parish picnic.
Please contact the parish office at 347-7129 if you are interested in chairing this committee.

St. Anthony Parish Family,

Greetings! I hope this finds each of you well. Today, as we all know is Mother's Day, so let's wish a very happy Mother's Day to all mothers and commit to praying in thanksgiving for their immeasurable impact in our lives. Fittingly, the Church Universal also observes the 56th Annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Our parents are our first and primary teachers of the faith and give us examples to live by. As such, prayer and discernment are central to this process. Announcing this important day, Pope Francis stated, "Such a decision carries the risk of leaving everything behind to follow the Lord, to devote ourselves completely to Him and to His Church."

Please join me and my Brother Seminarians in prayer today to ask God to open the hearts of young men and women across our Diocese so that they may more clearly see what it is that God is asking of them. By that same token, please pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life for service in the Diocese of Springfield.

Peace, Zach Samples, Seminarian, Diocese of Springfield in Illinois
