Come Holy Spirit ….. Fill Us with the Fire of Your Love

Back in November, I came to help out for nine days when I preached at all the masses regarding the “Stewardship & Discipleship” way of Life. I had shared with +Bishop Paprocki and Msgr. Hoefer about offering my help to come and “fill in” for whatever time they would need me.

Eventually they asked me to come and be the “Parochial Administrator” of these two wonderful parishes. I accepted their invitation knowing that this day may come and in late April, when +Bishop Paprocki called me and informed me he was going to name me “Pastor”.

At the same time +Bishop Paprocki told me I was to leave the position of Director of the Department of Stewardship & Discipleship for the diocese, but would also be named a “Consultor” to this office and ministry. He also shared with me he was naming Fr. Mark Tracy, newly ordained, as Parochial Vicar at both our parishes.

Well here we are, July 1st, and today I will be installed (by our records) as the 20th pastor of St. Anthony of Padua parish in Effingham, Illinois. “Come Holy Spirit, Come, Fill us with the Fire of Your Love” is truly my hope and prayer as I step into this new chapter of my priesthood and of our parish history.

All of our diocesan priests are ordained for the priestly ministry of serving parishes in the Diocese of Springfield in Illinois. Hence, I am a diocesan priest. I go where I am sent. I have always said yes to where the bishop has asked me to go. (We are often asked to give input). I was happy to accept this assignment as Pastor.

This weekend also begins the priestly ministry of our new parochial vicar, Fr. Mark Tracy. I have known his family for over 30 years. I have known him since he was born. I understand the importance of “welcoming” Fr. Mark to our two wonderful parishes. I, as pastor and brother priest, have a unique responsibility to mentor and help him begin this wonderful life as a “priest of God”. I treasure this opportunity and pledge my whole heart in these efforts. As Fr. Mark’s new “parish family” we all have a role in helping form Fr. Mark into a wonderful, faith-filled, servant priest of God.

WE welcome Fr. Mark’s parents this weekend at the 11:00 am mass and to a welcome reception at the parish center afterwards. Please come over and personally welcome Fr. Mark. If you are attending another mass please take time around NOON or a little after to stop in at the welcome reception.

I am honored to join Fr. Mark, Fr. Carl, Deacon Joe, & Zach in our priestly, sacramental, and servant ministry to these wonderful parishes. May every day be a joyful day in the Lord. May we love one another with the love of Jesus Christ. May we help each other seek the Kingdom, that we all may one day “See Him Face to Face”!!!

- Peace, Fr. Chuck
