Fiscal Year Ends …… Fiscal Year Begins

This weekend I will speak at all the masses here at St. Anthony regarding the Financial “state of the parish”, as I have called this talk for my 26 years of being a pastor. I want to begin by offering my profound “Thanks” to Carrie, Tiffiny, and Mary for the outstanding ministry they offer to our parish family with finances. Along with them, I also want to express my gratitude to the members of our parish Finance Council for their great care and ministry to our parish with their service as members of this council.

When I arrived in December I was nervous and concerned about offering a budget plan that each week showed we could end up being $287,836.27 in the hole for the Fiscal Year, 2017-2018. What is amazing is that as we conclude our fiscal year, cash basis, our fiscal year showed we ended up $89,690.49 in the black (profit). We brought in more income than we budgeted, and our expenses were less than what we budgeted. These are obviously the ways in which we want our parish to live as a vibrant, and viable parish family. Congratulations !!!!! On behalf of our staff and councils I offer my sincere gratitude for all who sacrifice to financially support the mission and ministry of St. Anthony Parish, and all we are about. As our diocese has encouraged, we seek to invite all our folks to choose to be “intentional disciples” out of “Gratitude” for all the Lord has done for us and given us. We are all called to biblically tithe our gift of 10 %. This is truly a sacrifice, but as we look to Jesus we see His ultimate sacrifice. Tithe is not only amount of money, but also time and talent. If a week has 168 hours, am I giving 16 of them to my faith walk and prayer life, and is my faith response only coming to Sunday mass, or am I being a steward by involving myself in a parish ministry or two. Last week Bob & Jane Schuette offered a beautiful reflection while offering an encouraging invitation to consider the ministry of taking communion to the shut ins and nursing home folks.

Regarding financial giving (stewardship of treasure), our parish family has 1302 families and 3181 parish members. We have 1293 envelopes issued. 519 of them (40%) gave –O- in support of their parish. 94 families gave between $1.00 - $100.00 for the fiscal year. 66 families gave between $101.00 and $250.00 for the fiscal year. 99 families gave between $251.00 and $500.00 for the fiscal year. Hence 778 families (60%) gave $10.00 or less a week for the fiscal year. 901 families gave between $101.00 and $250.00 for the fiscal year. 99 families gave between $1.00 - $100.00 for the fiscal year. Hence 778 families (60%) gave $10.00 or less a week for the fiscal year. 901 families gave between $101.00 and $250.00 for the fiscal year.

We know, even from scripture, that there are some who only have the ability to do what they are doing now. We are blessed by their great sacrifice just as much as those who give much larger amounts. I share these statistics to show us the reality of our parish giving but also to show what great potential we have to encourage “better stewardship”. This column is mainly about “treasure”, but the same holds true for “time”, and “talent” I am sure.

We are offering a budget this year that seeks to obviously encourage all of our folks to “Take a step”. Can we look at increasing our giving $5.00 a week, or $260.00 for the year over what we gave last year? If 500 envelope contributors would “take that step” we could achieve our goal in this new fiscal year, as we would increase Sunday giving by $130,000. When we encourage and invite all our parish families to “tithie” appropriately and honestly out of our “gratitude” to God for His blessings, we can keep other things like “tuition costs” down substantially. Our schools are one of our most treasured ministries and we want all our children to be able to receive this gift.

Thanks again for your great discipleship and stewardship this past fiscal year, and let us hope and pray we can continue to grow more deeply into living the discipleship way of life. We are signing and sending to the Diocese the budget plan for this coming 2018-19 fiscal year and it is a balanced budget projection.

- Peace, Fr. Chuck
