Lord God,
your Spirit of wisdom fills the earth
and teaches us your ways.

Look upon these students.
Let them enjoy their learning
and take delight in new discoveries.
Help them to persevere in their studies
and give them the desire to learn all things well.

Look upon these teachers.
Let them strive to share their knowledge
with gentle patience and endeavor always to bring the truth to eager minds.

Grant that students and teachers alike may follow
Jesus Christ, the way, the truth, and the life,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

~ Book of Blessings ~
Padre’s point of view . . .

The Preface -

You know that part where you just respond. The Lord be with you, says the priest. And with your spirit, you respond. Lift up your hearts, the priest says. We lift them up to the Lord, you respond. Let us gives thanks to the Lord, the priest says. It is right and just . . .

This is the dialogue which begins the Preface, in short it’s a conversation between the baptized and the ordained. It focuses on recognizing God’s Holy Presence and giving Him thanks. This dialogue is when we (Priest and People of God) speak of God’s presence in each Mass and are reminded of where our hearts should be. We give ourselves to Christ everyday but especially at Mass as we lift our hearts to Him.

Fr. Chris will be in the St. Anthony Church office on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
He will be in the Sacred Heart Church office on Wednesdays and Fridays.

Pray for Vocations

The RCIA inquiry stage is the starting place for adults who are thinking about entering the Catholic Church. Here you will find some detailed, Christ-centered guidance on faith development, Christianity and the Catholic Church.

Our main task here is to develop faith a little bit and get to know Christ, prayer, and how Christians live. That’s the only way you can make an informed decision about entering the Catholic Church.

The Rite of Christian Initiation or R.C.I.A., is a Year-Round Process so come anytime, you’re always welcome! Contact John Valenti, Pastoral Associate, 217-347-7129 for more information.

Rainey Fahey will be giving us insights on what can we do when life throws us a curve and everything becomes chaotic and what can we do when we feel like we are on a super busy highway and can’t find the exit. How do we react when we realize we have to accept what we simply cannot understand? Come join us as we discuss the purpose of mystery and how acceptance can bring us to a place of peace. Our goal is to find a way to live happy, joyous, and free.

Patty Winn a character of true faith and grit using her talent to portray historical and biblical characters will be presenting “Woman at the Well” transporting us to the time of Jesus.

Rainey Fahey is a wife, mother, and grandmother who is known for her warmth and sense of humor. A popular speaker and retreat leader, Rainey incorporates her personal stories into her talks as she reflects on the challenge to live in love, peace, and joy. Rainey was recently featured on the cover of Catholic St. Louis magazine’s inaugural issue, where she shared her story of how her faith has sustained her during loss and adversity. Through her workshops and one-on-one spiritual direction, she has helped hundreds of people find hope and promise in everyday life. Rainey is the former Director of Spiritual Formation for Catholic Charities of the St. Louis Archdiocese. In addition to facilitating retreats and days of prayer for agencies, she provided spiritual direction for employees. She is also an accomplished leader of spiritually-based stress management and self-esteem workshops and retreats for parishes and retreat centers.

Patty Winn has a degree in Education from Eastern Illinois University. She began portraying historical American History classes. Since that time, she has developed her own business called The Creative Classroom. She now performs over 70 different people from history and the Bible. Patty’s philosophy is that our heritage both Biblically and historically is made up of ordinary people who made a difference. All people, no matter their age, race, gender, or religious beliefs are able to learn from our heritage, and are able to make a positive difference. The people Patty portrays are those who are strongly grounded in their faith. Patty believes her dramatic talent comes from God, and views The Creative Classroom as a ministry.

This Extraordinary Jubilee Year of Mercy features a very special plenary indulgence, granted by Pope Francis, which is to open a Holy Door in every cathedral around the world, as well as in particular shrines and locations.
