Welcome
We extend a warm welcome to all our guests and visitors who have joined us today's liturgy. We hope that you feel at home here. Please let us know if we can be of any assistance while you are among us.
Dear Parishioners,

This weekend was already set up so that Father Ben Meyer and Father Chuck Edwards would cover the Masses. This is a good thing since I also just temporarily took on the duties of Director, Office for the Diaconate. The formation weekend for our deacon candidates is this weekend so I need to be with them. Father Ben is visiting while also helping us out and we are very grateful for his continued generosity and service to our parishes. Father Chuck Edwards is Director, Department for Evangelical and Catechetical Services and Director, Office for Stewardship and Discipleship in our Diocesan Curia. He also lives and serves at St. Aloysius Church in Springfield. Father Chuck will be staying at St. Anthony rectory through the end of next weekend and helping out next weekend as well. Father Ron is getting a few days away. I will be back with you next Sunday.

All of that takes some planning to work out obviously. According to our Gospel this weekend, so does our spiritual life. We tend to plan and prepare for most things. Our path to heaven should receive at least as much attention. Of course, we don’t know the exact path our life will take but we do know how to plan for the trip. In the Gospel, the wise virgins brought oil for their lamps knowing they could have a long wait. Because of their intentionality, they were able to welcome the Lord when he came. Like an important meeting, family event, the St. Anthony High School open house last Sunday or the Thanksgiving Tournament coming up, we also have to plan our spiritual life. And that plan is the most important of all. We can’t count on the holiness of someone else to carry us into heaven. We have to plan our lives to include prayer, the sacraments, and an ever-deepening relationship with our savior Jesus Christ. Jesus is the one who carries us into heaven. Our relationship with Jesus Christ is the oil that keeps our lamps lit.

Thank you for your continued prayers for those involved in bringing you a new pastor. We have had several conversations, thought and prayed through several options and we finally seem to be seeing the Holy Spirit’s plan. It will still take some time to finalize but I hope to be able to make an announcement by the beginning of December. Please continue to pray for the one who will become your new pastor. And, of course, you all remain in my thoughts and prayers.

May God bring us all closer to himself and to each other.

- Msgr. David Hoefler

Pictures are in!
